

Forum Participants Have Their Say

"I talk about the E Source Forum for weeks after I leave with my colleagues who've come to it—and with those who didn't make it, we brag about it! The greatest benefit is the people; the people keep me coming back."

—Michael Ennis, Long Island Power Authority

"The customer care parts of the Forum have provided us with some really great insights and some really good connections to other people who are all wrestling with the same problems."

—Grant Yoshihara, Northwest Natural
