Intelligent Grid Roundtable

SEPTEMBER 22, 2009 || WESTIN TABOR CENTER || DENVER, COLORADO

Fall 2009 E Source Intelligent Grid Roundtable

Join smart-grid leaders from across North America in Denver, Colorado, to discuss the most pressing issues of 2009. The Intelligent Grid Roundtable is being held in conjunction with the 22nd Annual E Source Forum so you'll get more content and more networking opportunities, but only have to travel to one conference.

This intense, highly interactive half-day roundtable session is designed to enhance your smart-grid strategies and your professional network. In this ever-changing industry, your peers are your best assets. You won't want to miss the insights and best practices that are revealed during our rich discussions. The Intelligent Grid Roundtable is a vendor-free zone, designed by and exclusively for members of the E Source Intelligent Grid Service. Join us for this important event.

Top 3 reasons you should attend

1. It's the only industry event dedicated to a closed-door dialogue with the top utility smart-grid and advanced metering infrastructure (AMI) leaders in North America.
2. The roundtable discussions are designed to provide numerous opportunities to share best practices and perspectives on challenges related to smart grid and AMI.
3. You'll leave with tools, knowledge, and insights on how to fast-track your programs.

Who should attend the Fall 2009 E Source Intelligent Grid Roundtable?

Participation is limited to members of the E Source Intelligent Grid Service. Members involved in smart grid and AMI programs should attend.
