The screenshot shows the E Source website interface. At the top is a navigation bar with the E Source logo and links for Home, What we cover, How we deliver, Who we help, Who we are, and Blog. On the right of the navigation bar are links for My account, Log out, and a search bar. Below the navigation bar is a large teal banner with the text 'Good morning, [blurred]' and 'Welcome to the E Source home page for [blurred]'. Underneath the banner is a horizontal menu with icons and labels for Home, Research, Tools, Upcoming events, and My favorites. The main content area features three white boxes. The first box, titled 'Choose your notifications', contains the text 'It's all about you! Let us know what topics interest you, and we'll reach out when we publish something new.' and a blue button labeled 'Sign up for topical alerts and newsletters' which is highlighted with a red rectangular box. The second box, titled 'Ask E Source', contains the text 'Got a question? Our experts can help—we'll do smart custom research projects to get you answers related to any of the subject areas your company subscribes to.' and a blue button labeled 'Ask a research question'. The third box features a profile picture of a woman and the text 'For membership questions or training on how your staff can make E Source work for you, contact Jordan Tobey, your data products manager, customer energy solutions.' and a blue button labeled 'Email Jordan'. A green callout box with the text 'Customize your experience—sign up for topical email alerts and newsletters!' has a red arrow pointing to the 'Sign up for topical alerts and newsletters' button.
